I.

The Washington State Gambling Commission issued Marcos Hernandez Guerrero license number 68-25083, authorizing Card Room Employee activity, formerly at Goldie's Shoreline Casino in Shoreline and Wizard's Casino in Burien.

This license expires on March 21, 2012, and was issued subject to the licensee's compliance with state gambling laws and regulations.

II.

Rick Day, Director of the Washington State Gambling Commission, charges the licensee with the following violation(s) of the Washington State Gambling Act, 9.46 RCW, and WAC Title 230:

On November 6, 2011, the licensee, while working as a security guard at Goldie's Casino, took an "I-phone" cell phone/PDA which had fallen out of a patron's pocket onto the floor. The licensee then placed the phone in his jacket pocket and later that day left Goldie's with the phone in his possession. When initially questioned about the theft by Goldie's management, Shoreline Police, and a Commission Special Agent (agent) the licensee denied taking the phone. The patron replaced the phone for $926 at Goldie's Casino's expense.

An agent observed the licensee take the phone from the floor of the gaming area on surveillance video. The licensee ultimately admitted to taking the phone after reviewing video from the incident, and after a discussion with the agent. On November 23, 2011, the licensee returned the phone to the agent. The licensee forfeited his last check to Goldie's Casino to partially reimburse his employer for the cost of the replacement phone

The licensee's actions demonstrate that the licensee poses a threat to the effective regulation of gambling, or create or increase the likelihood of unfair or illegal practices, methods, and activities in the conduct of gambling activities. The licensee has failed to prove he is qualified for licensure as required under RCW 9.46.153. Therefore, grounds exist to suspend Marcos Guerrero Hernandez' license under RCW 9.46.075(1) and (8), and WAC 230-03-085(1) and (8).

RCW 9.46.075 Denial, suspension, or revocation of license, application, or permit

The Commission may deny an application, or suspend or revoke any license or permit issued by it, for any reason or reasons, it deems to be in the public interest. These reasons shall include, but not be limited to, cases wherein the applicant or licensee, or any person with any interest therein. (The following subsections apply.)

(1) Has violated, failed or refused to comply with the provisions, requirements, conditions, limitations or duties imposed by chapter 9.46 RCW and any amendments thereto, or any rules adopted by the Commission pursuant thereto, or when a violation of any provision of chapter 9.46 RCW, or any Commission rule, has occurred upon any premises occupied or operated by any such person or over which he or she has substantial control.

(8) Fails to prove, by clear and convincing evidence, that he is qualified in accordance with the provisions of this chapter;

WAC 230-03-085 Denying, suspending, or revoking an application, license or permit

(The following subsections apply.)

We may deny, suspend, or revoke any application, license or permit, when the applicant, licensee, or anyone holding a substantial interest in the applicant's or licensee's business or organization:

(8) Poses a threat to the effective regulation of gambling, or creates or increases the likelihood of unfair or illegal practices, methods, and activities in the conduct of gambling activities, as demonstrated by: (a) Prior activities; or (b) Criminal record; or (c) Reputation; or (d) Habits; or (e) Associations.

RCW 9.46.153 Applicants and licensees Responsibilities and duties

(The following subsections apply.)

(1) It shall be the affirmative responsibility of each applicant and licensee to establish by clear and convincing evidence the necessary qualifications for licensure of each person required to be qualified under this chapter, as well as the qualifications of the facility in which the licensed activity will be conducted;
