On November 21, 2014, the Director of the Washington State Gambling Commission issued Administrative Charges against Lucky 21 Casino for the suspension of its licenses. The charges were issued because the licensee failed to disclose to Commission staff loans received in excess of $10,000 and did not disclose information about a new substantial interest holder, in violation of Commission rules.

Upon further review, Commission staff have chosen at this time to dismiss the Administrative Charges issued against the licensee without prejudice.
