

Concise Explanatory Statement

Notice of Permanent Rule Changes Related to Effective Dates

The rule identified below was repealed as the Gambling Commission no longer uses the effective date timelines outlined in the rule.

This explanatory statement concerns the Washington State Gambling Commission's repeal of WAC 230-01-015- Effective dates for rule-making orders.

The Administrative Procedure Act (RCW 34.05.325\(6\)) requires agencies to complete a concise explanatory statement before filing amended rules with the Office of the Code Reviser. This statement must be provided to anyone who provided comments regarding the proposed rule-making.

Once persons who provided comments during this rulemaking have had an opportunity to receive this document, the Washington State Gambling Commission will file the amended rules with the Office of the Code Reviser. These changes will become effective on October 10, 2021.

The Washington State Gambling Commission appreciates your involvement in the rule-making process. If you have any questions, please contact Ashlie Laydon, Rules Coordinator, at ashlie.laydon@wsgc.wa.gov or (360) 486-3473.

What are the agency's reasons for repealing this rule?

The Gambling Commission no longer uses the effective date timelines outlined in the rule, rather it identifies the effective date on the Rule-Making Order (CR-103P for permanent rules or CR-103E for emergency rules) in accordance with RCW 34.05.380, RCW 34.05.350, and RCW 34.05.360.

Summary of all public comments received on this rule proposal and consideration of the comments. If we responded to comments, add our response and how the final rule reflects consideration of the comments or why it fails to do so.
