If any portion of the proposed rule is not exempt , does it impose more-than-minor costs (as defined by RCW 19.85.020(2)) on businesses?
<ul> <li>No Briefly summarize the agency's minor cost analysis and how the agency determined the proposed rule did not impose more-than-minor costs. This rule changes the formula for determining how much cash a card game licensee must have on hand and allows for licensees to write checks to winning patrons for prizes exceeding $5,000 from general game play. Current rules already allow for checks to be written for certain prizes, such as player supported jackpots. Therefore, associated costs to small business would revolve around issuing additional checks to patrons who won over $5,000 from general game play, which is not expected to exceed three tenths of one percent of the business's annual revenue or income.</li> <li>☐ Yes Calculations show the rule proposal likely imposes more-than-minor cost to businesses and a small business economic impact statement is required. Insert the required small business economic impact statement here:</li> </ul>
