We have reviewed the changes to the games noted above. Based on our review of the documentation we received from Light and Wonder, the Washington State Gambling Commission will approve the games under the conditions listed below:

- The games shall be played and operated under the terms and conditions set forth under the game rules you provided on May 5, 2023 and June 5, 2023 and are enclosed.

Commercial Card Rooms

- Commercial card room operators seeking to operate any of these games must first submit their internal controls and receive approval from the Commission prior to implementing.
- Manufacturers and distributors of graphic layouts and/or any other equipment associated with these games must be licensed by the state prior to the sale of the equipment.

Tribal Casinos

- Each Tribal Gaming Operation must request and obtain approval from their respective Tribal Gaming Agencies (TGA).
- Before TGA allows your games to operate, they will seek concurrence from our agency as well.

- In addition to your approved rules, the Tribal submission to us must include all supplemental information required by Tribal-State Compact Appendix A, Section 18.
- Manufacturers and distributors of graphic layouts and/or any other equipment associated with the game must be certified by the state and licensed by the Tribe prior to the sale of the equipment.

Any modifications to these games may affect this approval. If you have any questions on commercial implementation, please contact Jess Lohse at (206) 786-3530. If you have any questions on Tribal implementation, please contact Kelly Main at (206) 423-4260.

Thank you for your cooperation and willingness to comply with the gambling laws of Washington State.

Sincerely,

DocuSigned by:

RULES OF PLAY

1. In Casino War, players compete against the dealer.
2. Players must make a primary bet. They may also make the optional Tie wager
3. Working from left to right, the dealer gives each player and himself a card face-up.
4. The dealer then works from right to left and resolves the action.
 - a. If the player's card is higher than the dealer's, the player wins even money on his primary bet. The Tie wager, if made, would lose.
 - b. If the dealer's card is higher than the player's, the player loses his primary bet. The Tie wager, if made, would also lose.
 - c. If the dealer's card ties the player, the Tie wager, if made wins 10 to 1. Regarding the primary wager, the player has a choice:
 - i. Surrender half his primary wager.
 - ii. Go to war. If the player goes to war, the player and the dealer must match the original wager, leaving three units in action. Example: If the player had bet $5, he and the dealer would each post another $5, for a total of $15.
 1. The dealer then burns three cards and gives the player the next one, face-up. The dealer burns three more cards and gives himself the next one, face-up.
 - a. If the player beats the dealer, he wins the three-units available.

- b. If the player ties the dealer, he not only wins the three-units available, but he wins an additional unit.
 - c. If the dealer beats the player, the house wins the three units available.
 - iii. As they move from left to right, dealers should pick and pay or lay and pay, according to house preference.

Operators cannot allow wagering limits to exceed the authorized limits set out in WAC 230-15-040 and WAC 230-15-140.
